AREA HIGHLIGHTS

Agoura Hills

Agoura Hills is a city in Los Angeles, situated only 30 miles from Downtown Los Angeles and just 8 miles from city limits. Located along famous Mulholland Highway halfway between Malibu and Calabasas

Malibu Lake

Malibu Lake is a small and historic neighboring lake community adjacent to the subject property and also part of the Santa Monica Mountains. Located within Malibu Creek State Park, and almost completely surrounded by the Santa Monica Mountains National Recreation Area, the lake and the surrounding property of 350 acres consist of rugged terrain, exclusive ranch homes, cabins and clubhouses which have been very popular venues for filming and weddings.

Kanan Road & The Snake

Probably the most famous roads in California, its proximity to Los Angeles has made it the playground of the rich and famous. The roads connect “the valley”, a large suburban area to the north, with the beach area just north of Malibu. This area is home to many of the best roads in So Cal, but most enthusiasts spend their time on “The Snake”, a short 21 turn section just above the popular Rock Store.

Paramount Ranch

Agoura’s best kept secret, Paramount Ranch is only a few miles from the subject property and is also situated in the national park area. The Ranch features old time movie sets and trails and is great for hiking and exploring.

Malibu

The City of Malibu is a 27-mile strip of Pacific coastline; a beachfront community famous for its warm, sandy beaches, and for being home to countless movie stars and others associated with the Southern California motion picture and recording industries. Most Malibu residents live within a few hundred yards of Pacific Coast Highway (California State Route 1) which traverses the city. Malibu is bounded (more or less) by Topanga and Pacific Palisades to the southeast, the Santa Monica Mountains to the north, the Pacific Ocean to the west, and Ventura County to the north.
